

Tuesday, October 24
8:00 pm
Sutton Place Synagogue
presents

Left vs. Right

The Battle for Israel's Soul

How is the turmoil in Trump-era Washington affecting Israel — and what's the role of American Jews? Can Israel rely on an unstable Washington as a shield in an unstable Middle East? Is there a future for a two-state Israeli-Palestinian peace process? How should American Jews navigate a political landscape that's polarized between a right that could threaten American Jewish values and a left that's increasingly anti-Israel?

Jonathan S. Tobin, opinion editor of JNS.org and contributor to National Review, the New York Post, Israel Hayom, Haaretz and the Jewish Week, and J.J. Goldberg, editor-at-large of the Forward news organization and former U.S. bureau chief of the Israeli news magazine The Jerusalem Report, will debate these and other critical issues. Moderated by Rabbi Rachel Ain

We are grateful to Gary Kahn for his generosity in memory of his beloved father SPS member Stanley Kahn which made this program possible.

Patrons Society members are invited to a dinner reception at 6:30 pm, prior to the debate in the sanctuary, which will be open to the public.

Visit www.spsnyc.org • 212-593-3300 • 225 East 51st Street, NYC

