

WOMEN'S LEAGUE

OF SUTTON PLACE SYNAGOGUE

Women's League is bringing Angela Himself, author of A River Could Be A Tree: A Memoir, to SPS on Tuesday, December 11th at 7 pm.

This is one event you do not want to miss!

“How does a woman who grew up in rural Indiana as a fundamentalist Christian end up a practicing Jew in New York?”

Angela Himself was raised in a German-American family, one of eleven children who shared a single bathroom in their rented ramshackle farmhouse in Indiana. Her family followed an evangelical branch of Christianity—the Worldwide Church of God—which espoused a doomsday philosophy. Angela Himself will discuss A River Could Be a Tree: A Memoir, which is a fascinating story of struggle, doubt, and finally, personal fulfillment as a practicing Jewish woman.

Admission is free, and it is only $18 to purchase a signed book!

*If you would like to purchase this book prior to the event, please contact Harriet Janover at 212-593-3300.
