THIS MORNING WE CELEBRATE THE BAT MITZVAH OF

FELICIA ABIGAIL EINHORN
This morning, Felicia Abigail Einhorn, daughter of LeAnne and David Einhorn, is called to the Torah for her Bat Mitzvah. She is happy to share this honor with her family, friends, and members of the Sutton Place Synagogue Community.

Felicia enjoyed her Bat Mitzvah preparations with the learned Cantor Dov, who is soon retiring and will be missed. She also enjoyed attending the Jackson Religious School at Sutton Place Synagogue for the past six years. Felicia and her younger sister Diana participated in several Purim Shpiels over these years and never missed a rehearsal.

In her spare time, Felicia enjoys musical theater, gymnastics, tennis and has recently begun taking fencing lessons; she is also an avid reader.

Felicia looks forward to the day she makes her first visit to Israel. Our hearty wishes of mazal tov to this lovely talented young woman and her family. May her dreams come true.

Mazel Tov - מזל טוב

The flowers and kiddush following the service are sponsored by LeAnne and David Einhorn in happy celebration of Felicia’s Bat Mitzvah.

PARASHAT NOAH

Torah (Genesis 6:9 - 11:32): Etz Hayim p. 41 - 63
Haftarah (Isaiah 54:1 - 55:5): Etz Hayim p. 64 - 68

TORAH PORTION SUMMARY

In this Torah portion, God punishes the wicked in the world by causing a giant flood. God saves Noah and his family, who will repopulate the world. We are also introduced to Abram and his wife, Sarai.

THOUGHT QUESTION

We are told in this week’s parasha that the world was corrupt and filled with lawlessness, which is why God brought the plague. What might have God witnessed to describe it this way?
The Night of Broken Glass
KRISTALLNACHT OBSERVANCE
Wednesday, November 6 at 7 pm

Hosted by Sutton Place Synagogue in partnership with Christ Church & St. James Episcopal Church

In the spirit of interfaith unity and respect, Rabbi Rachel Ain (Sutton Place Synagogue), The Reverend Stephen Baumann (Christ Church), and The Reverend Brenda Husson (St. James Episcopal Church) and their respective congregations, invite you to attend an evening of remembrance of the Holocaust pogrom that occurred in November 1938.

Keynote Speaker:
Storyteller
Marty Brounstein
Author of
Two Among the Righteous Few

Amidst the horrific tragedy of the Holocaust comes an interfaith story of courage, compassion, and rescue. Marty tells the story of a Christian couple in Holland who saved the lives of over two dozen Jews in World War II and the Holocaust, including a few German Jews who survived Kristallnacht. Marty also has a meaningful personal connection to this story which he reveals in his engaging storytelling presentation.

Two Among the Righteous Few will be available for sale and signing at the conclusion of the program.

Sutton Place Synagogue presents

#SPSTALKS

In a thoughtful, facilitated manner, we invite members of SPS to join together to discuss issues that are near and dear to us but might place us in opposition to one another.

The only way to learn and to grow is through listening.

SHOULD AMERICAN JEWS GET INVOLVED IN ISRAELI POLITICS?

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 7:30 PM

RSVP to Jeremy Reiss at Jeremy_reiss@msn.com so he can send you reading materials in advance.
COMMUNITY LEARNING

“ARE JEWS REALLY PROTECTED BY THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION?” TAUGHT BY SPS MEMBER DR. MARTY EDELMAN
Thursdays, November 7, 14, 21 from 4:30 - 5:30 pm
American Jews have always wanted to be treated on EQUAL TERMS, both legally and socially, with all other Americans. This “course” will examine whether current Supreme Court interpretations of the Constitution are promoting or inhibiting that objective. RSVP to sps@spsnyc.org

THE ETHICAL WILLS PROJECT WITH RABBI AIN
Second Session: Monday, November 25 from 4:30-5:45 pm
Rabbi Ain will facilitate the The Jewish Ethical Wills Project at SPS. The two-session curriculum explores ethical wills as an authentic Jewish practice that helps to articulate values, look at issues of legacy, and navigate liminal moments. The Ethical Wills Project is an initiative of JTS’s Center for Pastoral Education and the Marlene Meyerson JCC Manhattan and is supported by a generous grant from the Charles H. Revson Foundation. RSVP to sps@spsnyc.org

SHAKESPEARE AND TORAH WITH RABBINIC INTERN DAVID CHAPMAN
Saturday, November 9 following Kiddush
Fie on him, Jezebel! (Twelfth Night, Act II). This course will explore connections between William Shakespeare and one of his most important influences, the Hebrew Bible. Together we will look at similarities in language, style, theme, and theology between the two canons. No acting experience necessary! RSVP to sps@spsnyc.org
